

ReNew

July/August 2011

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

+ Roundtable:
Making a Case
for Energy from Waste

+ Are Asset
Managers
the New CFOs?

FISSION ROULETTE?

Canada's Reaction to Nuclear Doubts

10

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

JULY/AUGUST 2011

FEATURES

- 18 Good Bill Hunting The campaign for a national transit plan continues—but beyond funding, what would a good strategy entail?
By Dale Duncan
- 26 Fission for a Compliment Nuclear energy is facing renewed opposition globally—but a bad rep may be the least of the Canadian nuclear industry’s challenges.
By Mary Baxter
- 32 Rounding Error The missing piece of the Public Sector Accounting Board’s asset management requirements.
By Mira Shenker

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor’s Note Is the age of the national conferences coming to an end?
By Mira Shenker
- 8 ReFinance A roadmap for stakeholders looking for sustained infrastructure investment from the feds.
By Clarke Cross and Walter Robinson
- 10 ReThink An exclusive roundtable arranged in partnership with law firm BLG delves into whether energy recovery from waste is a valid solution to our trash issues—and whether these plants should be classified as energy projects.
By Mira Shenker
- 22 Panorama Quebec’s Champlain Bridge was not built to last.
By Vic Perry
- 24 ReImagine University of Toronto’s Robarts Library.
- 38 ReEvents CNAM’s Building Communities, FCM’s Annual Conference, OSPE’s P3 breakfast, and more.
- 41 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 42 Closing Shot Todd Latham wants cities to give the private sector a chance.

FRONT

- 5 Letters Guy Féllo wants Canada to be recognized as a leader in infrastructure governance and management.
- 6 Poll Which party has the best plan for transit?

32

42

38

26