

ReNew

January/February 2012

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Magazine

+ Cities Hunt for New Revenue

+ Urban Planning: It's Not What It Used to Be

$114 Billion

Invested in Canada's Top 100 Projects

ReThink. ReBuild. ReNew.
renewcanada.net

Sydney Tar Ponds:
Cleanup Site or Legal Battleground?

What More Mergers and Fewer Engineers Means for Canadian Firms

InfraInvesting: Are Hard Assets Still a Good Investment?

$9.00

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Magazine

JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2012

FEATURES

- 8 Reaching for Revenue From Nova Scotia to Calgary, cities look for innovative tools to help fund infrastructure.
By Chris Ollenberger
- 28 The Civil-Less Society Canada's civil engineering community is facing a dwindling supply of qualified workers. Are immigration policies and consolidation the right answers?
By Joel Kranc

TOP 100 PROJECTS

- 12 Top 100 Breakdown From bidding wars to funding innovative technologies, a closer look at the biggest projects of 2012 reveals some industry trends.
By Mira Shenker and Douglas McCallum
- 18 Stat: Wind Development on the Top 100 From the list's inception in 2007, investment in wind energy has risen from $164 million to over $2 billion.
- 19 Socializing How to make a case for social infrastructure like sports venues when basic assets are in need of repair and replacement.
By Mira Shenker
- 20 Stat: Social Infrastructure on the Top 100 Investment shifts from $1.2 billion in 2007 to $610 million in 2012.

SPECIAL INSERT

Top 100 2012 Our sixth annual report on Canada's biggest infrastructure projects.

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note Changing the energy debate.
By Mira Shenker
- 10 ReFinance Investing in infrastructure assets is still a solid bet.
By Al Emid
- 22 Panorama A bird's eye view.
- 24 Re: The Law Neighbours of the Sydney Tar Ponds file a class-action suit, even in the wake of neighbours of Port Colborne's failed suit.
By Dianne Saxe and Jackie Campbell
- 32 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 34 ReEvents Glenn Miller attends the OPPI Symposium and finds that the planning profession has changed in the last 25 years, Electric Mobility Canada launches Building Canada's Green Highway, Canada hosts Greenbuild, and more.
- 42 Closing Shot Todd Latham warns readers to watch their assets.

FRONT

- 5 Letters One reader cautions not to dismiss environmental concerns, while another calls for long-term thinking.
- 6 Poll Choose Your Transportation: Will car always be king?

12

34

19

28

10