

ReNew

September/October 2018

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Magazine

+ Congestion Solutions

+ Paying for Transit

+ Inside the Joyce Centre

DANGER AHEAD

Will Cannabis Law Threaten Workplace Safety?

18

14

20

30

8

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Magazine

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2018

POLITICS

- 8 Northern Nightmare
Building infrastructure in Canada's north has become a difficult and costly proposition.
By Andrew Macklin
- 10 Five Days in October
Three provinces go to the polls to vote in municipal elections. How will the results change the infrastructure landscape?
By Andrew Macklin

FINANCE

- 14 Paying for Transit
Exploring the evolution of transit payment systems and how the current systems can impact transit ridership.
By Brian Weiner
- 16 Scaling Up
Understanding the fiscal realities of building today's infrastructure gigaprojects.
By Sapan Sheth

POLICY

- 18 Cannabis in Construction
Canada's new cannabis legislation could have deadly consequences if industry professionals haven't prepared for it.
By Amina Dibe and Andrew Pariser
- 20 Congestion Solutions
The importance of reducing congestion in the Toronto-Waterloo corridor to improve regional economic growth.
By Natasha Apollonova

SMART CITIES

- 24 The Results are in!
Analyzing the themes and trends that have emerged with the naming of the finalists for Canada's Smart Cities Challenge.
By Karen Stewart

PROJECTS

- 28 Land of Opportunity
The re-development of a transmission corridor could drive green space development from coast-to-coast.
By Andrew Macklin
- 30 Back to School
The Joyce Centre for Partnership and Innovation, Canada's first net zero energy academic building, opens its doors for the first time.
By Andrew Macklin

PARTNERSHIPS

- 32 Bridges to Prosperity
A fresh perspective on building infrastructure for, and in partnership with, First Nations communities across Canada.
By Ross Homeniuk

ENVIRONMENT

- 35 The Changing Landscape
How regulation is causing consolidation in the environmental consulting industry.
By Faramarz Bogzaran

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note
Andrew Macklin discusses how smart building and technology will force a change in Canadian business culture.
- 5 Front
Governor General Julie Payette names industry leaders to the Order of Canada.
- 22 Panorama
From the Ground Up
- 37 Top100 Projects
Gordie Howe proponent, Nova Scotia funding
- 38 People & Events
Appointments, announcements, company news, and event reports.
- 42 Closing Shot
Brian Dijkema on how changes to Ontario legislation could save billions on nuclear refurbishment projects.